Pala U Waterfall

Tired of laying at the pool? Come join our guided excursion to the Pala U Waterfall. The 16 tier Waterfall is one of the highest in Thailand. On this trip we will trek to the 4th level, breaking at the famous deep pools where you can take a nice, cool, refreshing dip. Lunch will be served at a local restaurant where you can indulge in fresh ingredient as well as your favorite Thai dishes. Don't miss the beautiful countryside on your way back to the Resort.

Sam Roi Yod National Park

“Three hundred peaks” Sam Roi Yod is a fascinating National Park with beautiful limestone mountains, caves, beaches, islands, and marshy wetlands. On this trip we will take you on a local “long tail” boat to the foot of a 30 minute hike into the Prayanakorn Cave. There you will find the beautiful ‘sala’ (throne) erected by King Rama V and have the opportunity to explore the cave which is a once in a lifetime experience. Get an early start to experience the minutes of morning sun glancing into the multiple football field sized cave.

Sam Roi Yod – Outdoor Adventure

In the mood for an adventurous day outside? We will venture to Sam Roi Yod National Park where you will find some of the variety of scenery in all of Thailand with limestone cliffs, freshwater mangroves, serene beaches and secluded caves. We then continue the journey by mountain bike for ten kilometers along flat land to where you will be awarded with a Thai set lunch. Here you will also have the chance to relax on the beach before heading off to Wat Khoa Dang temple. We then exchange our bikes for kayaks and paddle through the mangroves.

Kui Buri National Park

12 families/230 elephants roam in the wild of Kui Buri National Park. Sightings “not guaranteed” – but if you are lucky, a magical experience.

Mangrove Forest and Longtail Boat Trip

Located very close to the Resort, enjoy the main attraction which is a leisurely walk through the middle of the natural preserved mangroves. At the end of the trail we will take you to see the forest from a water perspective, traveling along the river by long tail boat. Keep an eye out for the riverbank wildlife.

Hua Hin Hills Vineyard

Most likely you skeptical about Thai Wines or Vineyards. You shouldn't be! In the deep Hills of Hua Hin you will find breathtaking scenery of the vineyard. Sit in the Sala and try one of the many choices of wine tastings and increase your knowledge on Thai wines. There are also many activities to do such as creating your own wine label, or the once in a lifetime experience of riding through the vineyard on the back of an elephant.

Hua Hin Discovery

Not a fan of trekking through the jungle or up waterfalls? No problem. Our Hua Hin Discovery trip is a more traditional sightseeing tour. We will explore the very well known Summer Palace which was built in the early 1900's. Followed by one of the first railroad stations in Thailand that was established to transport the King to his summer retreat. After this it became a famous beachside vacation destination for the high society of Bangkok. After lunch, we will make a quick stop at monkey mountain, where you can feed hundreds of free roaming monkeys that are part of the temple situated in the same area.

Hua Hin Floating Market

Hua Hin Floating market, you no longer have to travel to Bangkok to experience this traditional way of shopping. The market has the ambience of the old Hua Hin colonial style buildings and features over 130 shops and 30 wooden boats that sell hot meals, snacks and drinks. Be sure to try some of the local snacks along the way.

Damnern Saduak Floating Market and River Kwai

A good opportunity for you to visit two famous places in one day. At Damnern Saduak floating market, we take a boat trip along the canals to peruse the market. The tour then continues to Kanchanaburi and home to the famous “Bridge over the River Kwai” and a short journey by train along the death railway. Visit the WWII museum and the well kept cemeteries containing the graves of an estimated nine thousand allied soldiers.

Discover Bangkok

A full day excursion incorporating the main highlights of Bangkok; the Golden Buddha, the Grand Palace, the Emerald Buddha and finally, the Reclining Buddha. After a great lunch, overlooking the Chao Praya river we take you to the famous shopping mall. Here you will find everything your heart desires, from local Thai souvenirs to international top brands. Just as the sun sets, you have a chance to relax on the way back to Hua Hin.

The 3 Palaces

Let our Tour Guides take you on a cultural tour of the most famous palaces in the area. Heading north from the Resort we will first visit the Summer Palace which was built in 1926 by King Rama VI as a summer retreat. We will then drive further north to the Phetchaburi province where we will inspect the Khao Wang. This palace is located on a 92 meter high hill, built in a European style with Thai and Chinese influences. Last but not least we will arrive at Ban Puan Palace. This beautiful building was constructed in 1910 and served as a King Rama IV's residence during the rainy season.
